List all individuals, including the candidate, who contributed an aggregate total of more than $250 during the election year (e.g., an individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election must be listed since their total contributions during the election year exceed $250). In the next column, list the date of each contribution which has not been previously reported. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement of the Election Year or an Annual statement, Column A will be zero. If you are filing a second or any subsequent campaign statement during the election year, under Column A: list the total amount of contributions previously reported from each individual during the election year; and, for newly listed individuals, list all their previously unreported contributions (e.g., an individual gave $125 this period and had previously made contributions of $100 and $50 earlier in the election year, $100 and $50 would each be listed under Column A). In Columns B, C, and D, list each contribution received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election year to date.

If the committee reimburses the candidate or pays an agent (e.g. an advertising agency) for expenses they incurred on behalf of the committee, the committee must list those vendors who received payment(s) from the candidate or agent of the committee.
