Definitions

Business - means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, firm, enterprise, franchise, association, organization, self-employed individual, holding company, joint stock company, trust, activity or entity.

Business with which the individual is associated - means a business (1) in which the individual is a partner, Limited Liability Company Member, director, or officer, or (2) stockholder of a corporation stock worth one thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than a five percent equity interest, or is a stockholder of publicly traded stock worth ten thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than ten percent equity interest. An individual who occupies a confidential professional relationship protected by law shall be exempt from this section. This section shall not apply to publicly traded stock under a trading account if the filer reports the name and address of the stockbroker.

Elective office - means a public office filled by an election, except for federal offices. A person who is appointed to fill a vacancy in a public office which is ordinarily elective holds an elective office.

Financial institution - As used in section 49-1496, financial institution means a bank, savings bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, or credit union, whether chartered by the United States, the department, or a foreign state; agency, any other similar organization which is covered by federal deposit insurance; or a trust company. See section 8-801.03(1) of the state statutes.

Gift - means a payment, subscription, advance, forbearance, rendering or deposit of money, services, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is given therefor. Gift shall not include a campaign contribution otherwise reported as required by law, a commercially reasonable loan made in the ordinary course of business, a gift received from a relative, a breakfast, luncheon, dinner or other refreshments consisting of food or beverage for immediate consumption, or the occasional provision of transportation within the State of Nebraska.

Relative - means any person related to another by blood or marriage to the third degree of consanguinity, including a foster parent, foster child, step-parent, stepchild, and adopted children and their adoptive parents.

Income - means any money or anything of value received, or to be received as a claim on future services, whether in the form of a fee, salary, expense, allowance, forbearance, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of recompense then constituting income under the Internal Revenue Code. You need not report a distribution of principal or the income of an irrevocable trust of a member of your immediate family.

Person - means a business, individual, partnership, firm, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, syndicate, business trust, labor organization, company, corporation, association, committee, or any other organization or group of persons acting jointly.
