General Information - Filing Requirements

I. Who Should File:

- A.
 1. State Officeholders, State Officials and State Employees listed in §49-1493 or Commission Rule 2.
 2. A member of the board of directors or an officer of a district organized under the provisions of Chapter 70, Revised Nebraska Statutes (public power districts and rural power districts.)
 3. A member of a land-use planning commission, zoning commission, or authority of the State or any county with a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants.
 4. An elected official of the primary or metropolitan class.
 5. An elected county official (county commissioners, supervisors, weed board members, attorney, sheriff, register of deeds, clerk, clerk of the district court, superintendent of schools, engineer, assessor, public defender, treasurer, surveyor).
- B. Candidates for the elective offices and positions specified above. Candidates for elective offices may have other filing obligations under the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Act or the Campaign Finance Limitation Act. Please contact the Commission office for filing requirements.

II. When and Where to File:

- A. All officeholders and state employees specified above should file with the Commission annually by April 1 and with the election commissioner or clerk of the county of their residence within 5 days of filing with the Commission.
- B. Candidates for the elective offices and positions specified above should file with the same official with whom the candidate files to run for office at the time of filing for office. (A candidate's filing for office will not be accepted unless accompanied by a Statement of Financial Interests.) The candidate should file the same statement with the Business - means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, firm, enterprise, franchise, association, organization, self-employed individual, holding company, joint stock company, receivership, trust, activity or entity.

Business with which the individual is associated - means a business (1) in which the individual is a partner, Limited Liability Company Member, director, or officer, or (2) in which the individual or a member of the individual's immediate family is a stockholder of closed corporation stock worth one thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than a five percent equity interest, or is a stockholder of publicly traded stock worth ten thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than ten per cent equity interest. An individual who occupies a confidential professional relationship protected by law shall be exempt from this section. This section shall not apply to publicly traded stock under a trading account if the filer reports the name and address of the stockbroker.

Elective office - means a public office filled by an election, except for federal offices. A person who is appointed to fill a vacancy in a public office which is ordinarily elective holds an elective office.

Financial Institution - As used in section 49-1496, financial institution shall mean a bank or banking corporation as defined in section 8-101, a federal bank or branch bank, an insurance company providing a loan on an insurance policy, a small loan company, of a state or federal savings and loan association or credit union, the federal government or any political subdivision thereof.

Gift - means a payment, subscription, advance, forbearance, rendering or deposit of money, services, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is given therefor. Gift shall not include a campaign contribution otherwise reported as required by law, a commercially reasonable loan made in the ordinary course of business, a gift received from a relative, a breakfast, luncheon, dinner or other refreshments consisting of food or beverage for immediate consumption, or the occasional provision of transportation within the State of Nebraska.

Commission within 5 days of filing for office. In addition, if the candidate has not already filed a copy of the Statement with the election commissioner or county clerk of the candidate's residence, he should do so within 5 days of filing with the Commission. (Note: This does not apply to a person who has already filed a Statement for the preceding calendar year.)

C. If newly appointed to an office specified above, the appointee should file with the Commission before assuming the duties of office and with the election commissioner or the county clerk of the county of the appointee's residence within 5 days of filing with the Commission. If confirmation is required, also file with the official or body acting on confirmation within 15 days after nomination or 10 days before action on the nomination, whichever is sooner.

D. Within 30 days after leaving an office or a position specified under 1-A, a Statement should be filed with the Commission and with the election commissioner or clerk of the county of the filer's residence, covering the period from the end of the calendar year for which you previously filed to the date you left office.

III.

Potential Conflict of Interest Filings:

The individuals listed under 1-A above are also required to file a Potential Conflict of Interest Statement (NADC Form C-2) whenever a potential conflict arises. A potential conflict of interest exists when such official or employee, in the discharge of his or her official duties, would be required to take an action or make any decision that may cause financial benefit or detriment to him or her, a member of his or her immediate family, or a business with which he or she is associated which is distinguishable from the effects of such action on the public generally, or a broad segment of the public.

Definitions

Relative - means any person related to another by blood or marriage to the third degree of consanguinity, including a foster parent, foster child, step-parent, stepchild, and adopted children and their adoptive parents.

Income - means any money or anything of value received, or to be received as a claim on future services, whether in the form of a fee, salary, expense allowance, forbearance, forgiveness, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of recompense then constituting income under the Internal Revenue Code. You need not report a distribution of principal or the income of an irrevocable trust of a member of your immediate family.

Person - means a business, individual, proprietorship, firm, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, syndicate, business trust, labor organization, company, corporation, association, committee, or any other organization or group of persons acting jointly.

Statutory Definitions: Sections 49-1407, 49-1408, 49-1417, 49-1423, 49-1425, 49-1426, 49-1438, 49-1497, Revised Nebraska Statutes.
