Schedule A- Contributions Over $250 Received from the Candidate or other Individuals*

List all individuals from whom contributions totaling more than $250 were received during the period covered by the report and all individuals who have contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. (Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

(Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

Schedule A- Contributions Over $250 Received from the Candidate or other Individuals*

List all individuals from whom contributions totaling more than $250 were received during the period covered by the report and all individuals who have contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. (Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

Schedule A- Contributions Over $250 Received from the Candidate or other Individuals*

List all individuals from whom contributions totaling more than $250 were received during the period covered by the report and all individuals who have contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. (Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

Schedule A- Contributions Over $250 Received from the Candidate or other Individuals*

List all individuals from whom contributions totaling more than $250 were received during the period covered by the report and all individuals who have contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. (Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

(Include contributions of over $250 received from the candidate.) All contributions from the same donor must be listed under the same name. In the first column list the name and address of each individual who has contributed a cumulative total of over $250 during the election period. In the next column, list the date(s) of the contributions, except those which have been previously reported. In Column A, list the total amount of the contributions received to date during the election period as of the beginning of the reporting period from each of the individuals listed. If you are filing your first Campaign Statement for the Primary Election or an annual statement, this column will show zero. If you are filing your second election Campaign Statement or any subsequent election statement, this column must include amounts listed on previous election Campaign Statements. In Columns B, C, and D, list the contributions received during this period. In Column E, list the total contributions received from each of the individuals listed for the election period to date. (E.g., An individual who gave $150 during the Primary Election and $125 during the General Election would have his or her contributions accumulated and would be reported on this schedule.)

Schedule D- Section 1: Expenditures of Over $250 this Period*

List all payees who were paid more than $250 during this reporting period. If multiple payments to the same payee totaled more than $250 throughout this reporting period, those expenditures must be listed. Reporting period refers to your entry on Page 1 under Item 4. Expenditures to the same payee over separate reporting periods should not be accumulated. Expenditures to the same payee must be listed under the same name. If the committee reimburses the candidate or engages the services of an advertising agency or another agent of the committee for expenses they incurred on behalf of the committee, list the payments the committee made to the candidate or agent and also list the payments which were made by the candidate or agent on behalf of the committee. (E.g., if the candidate makes payments to a newspaper for advertising and is reimbursed by the committee, report the payments made to the candidate but also list the payments made by the candidate to the newspaper. Include the name of the newspaper, and the date of each of the expenditures by the candidate and list the amount only in the "purpose" box along with the description of the expenditure.)
