Neil and Frank,

Omaha City Council member Aimee Melton is requesting guidance and an opinion on whether she has an actual conflict of interest. Note her attached form mentions she is a partner in the firm but below she states she is no longer a partner but is now Of Counsel and receives a salary from the firm. I told her to submit a new form and we would discuss whether it appears she has an actual conflict.

Subject: Potential conflict

Dear Dave,

I am a member of the Omaha City Council. Attached please find a potential conflict form. I was wondering if NADC could let me know if I need to file this based upon the circumstances. I am representing Anthony Conner, the President of the Omaha Police Officers Association, in his family law/divorce case. The City Council will most likely be voting on a new contract for the police union in the next few months. I believe the new contract will equally benefit both the city and union members as we are having difficulty recruiting police officers and the increase in pay will help us get back to our budgeted sworn strength. However, the contract will directly benefit one of my private clients in my law practice. I am no longer a partner at Reagan, Melton & Delaney, LLP. I became Of Counsel last year and receive a salary with no share of the profits of the firm.

I would appreciate some guidance and an opinion from the NADC.

Thank you,

Aimee Melton
