Re: C-2 Potential Conflict of Interest Statement

Dear Mr. Mogul,

This will acknowledge receipt of a C-2 Potential Conflict of Interest Statement ("Statement"), which you filed with the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission ("NADC") on Tuesday, January 13, 2026. At the same time, you had an e-mail exchange with NADC Executive Director David Hunter concerning your Statement.

Although your Statement does not indicate it, you are a Board Member of the Nebraska Public Power District ("NPPD"). You are also a Partner in Mogul's Transmission, Inc. ("Mogul's"). In your conversation with Mr. Hunter, you stated that Mogul's has a contract with NPPD, and he recommended that you file a C-3 Contractual Interest Statement with the person who keeps records for NPPD.

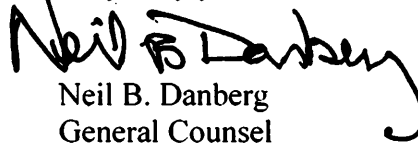

As an NPPD Board Member, you are governed by the terms and requirements of Section 49-1499.03(1) of the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act ("NPADA"). That Section provides in pertinent part that if you are required to, "take any action or make any decision in the discharge of [your] official duties that may cause financial benefit or detriment to [you],, a member of [your] immediate family, or a business with which [you are] associated," then you should prepare and file with the NADC a written statement describing the matter. You have done this by filing your subject Statement with the NADC. The cited NPADA Section further provides that the NADC will advise you with respect to what action you should take under the circumstances.

Your Statement raises the question of whether you may take action on an invoice from Mogul's to NPPD. Since you are a partner in Mogul's, you would have a direct financial interest in such an invoice from Mogul's relating to work done for NPPD. In addition, as a partner in Mogul's, it is a business with which you are associated (as defined in Section 49-1408 of the NPADA). Therefore, payment of an invoice to Mogul's by NPPD—or, alternately, failure to pay such an invoice-- would be of direct benefit or detriment to you as a partner in Mogul's.

Based upon the information which you have provided, we conclude that you would have a conflict of interest in acting upon an invoice from Mogul's to NPPD. In view of this conflict of interest, you should abstain from discussion and voting upon such an invoice.

We thank you for filing the Statement. Please contact me directly at 402-471-0846, if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Very truly yours,

Neil B. Danberg
General Counsel
