If your committee made multiple contributions in support or opposition to the same candidate or ballot question, also list the total accumulated contributions given for the election. Expenditures made in support of more than one candidate or ballot question committee must be allocated (E.g. the purchase of a newspaper ad advocating support or opposition to more than one candidate or ballot question should be apportioned reasonably among those candidates and ballot questions).

In-Kind and Independent Expenditure payees should be disclosed and described on Item 7.
